Public Clarification Notice

It has come to the attention of the Hong Kong Society of Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging (HKSNNMI) that a newly established organization is operating under its former English name, "Hong Kong Society of Nuclear Medicine".

To prevent any potential public confusion, HKSNNMI hereby formally declares that it is a well-established professional medical organization, a registered limited company, and the sole legal holder of the current registered trademark (No.: 306681006). HKSNNMI is entirely independent of this newly formed entity and has no administrative, financial, or legal affiliation with it whatsoever.

HKSNNMI remains fully dedicated to the advancement of nuclear medicine and molecular imaging, and to serving the best interests of the public.
